

We want to hear your story.

Are you a woman in medicine thinking about your reproductive path?

We're exploring how career and reproductive decisions intersect for women in medicine. Your insights can help reshape institutional support and policy.

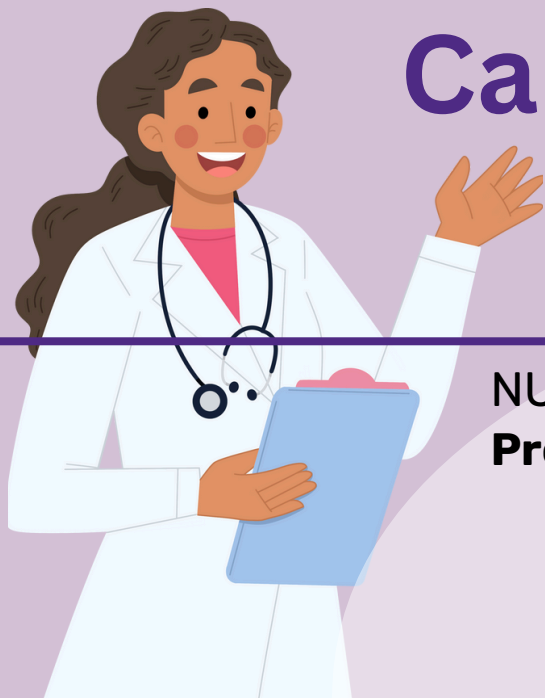

📄 This in-depth research study centers your experience. Too often, these conversations stay private – if they happen at all. Let's change that.

💬 Real stories. Real impact.

We're currently recruiting residents, fellows, and early-career physicians.

🕒 Time commitment: ~2 hours

Includes a short survey + 60–90 min interview
