Premedical and Medical Divisions Region 4 Conference

March 1, 2025 9 AM- 4 PM | Gainesville, FL

Region 4 is thrilled to invite you and all of your branch members to this year's AMWA Region 4 Conference, which will be held at the University of Florida in Gainesville, FL on Saturday March 1, 2025! Hosted as a collaboration between the AMWA Region 4 Medical Student Division and the Premedical Division, this event aims to foster mentorship and collaboration between women in all stages of their journey in medicine.

To kick off the conference, there will be a mixer event on Friday evening (more details to come on this), followed by a full day of events on Saturday. Highlights include a physician keynote speaker, interactive skills workshops, panel discussions featuring medical residents and health professionals, as well as a research poster showcase, and numerous networking opportunities. Sessions will focus on topics pertinent to women in healthcare, including leadership, career advancement, mental health, research, and advocacy.

Please register for the conference using the conference registration form. Interested in presenting a research poster? Register for the conference first, then submit your poster using the poster registration form. We invite both undergraduates and medical students to present a poster in our research showcase, which will occur in the last hour of the conference. Participation in the session is optional; however, we encourage conference attendees not presenting to stay and observe the research! The regular registration period is January 31 to February 22 and the last day to register posters is February 8.

This event is a great opportunity for networking and meaningful connections with fellow AMWA members, especially if you are unable to attend AMWA's Annual Meeting in Boston later in the month. We hope to see you there! For more information please contact the Region 4 Director at region4@amwa-premed.org.

Western University - Schulich School of Medicine in Ontario, Canada Research Study Access survey here!

This research study seeks to understand how students from Asian sub ethnic communities perceive stereotypes and biases, and how this relates to diversity in medical school admissions. The researchers are asking anyone who identifies as any Asian sub-ethnicity AND is a premedical student (i.e. planning to apply to med school)) to complete our very short (2 min), anonymous, online survey. No identifying information is being collected. Your participation in this study is voluntary. Your decision to participate will not impact your academic standing or professional school applications. By completing this survey and agreeing to the online consent form, you are providing consent to use your data in our study. Please access the consent form and online survey at the link.
