As February, wraps up, let's continue to fight cardiovascular disease in women (Heart Health Month) and amplify the voices of our Black colleagues (Black History Month). Ahead, we recognize Rare Disease Awareness Day (February 28) and the bridge between Black History Month and Women's History Month (Feb 28 - Mar 1) when we remember Anarcha, Lucy, and Betsey, enslaved women whose sacrifices have shaped the field of women's health. And be sure to thank a resident today!
