

Caring for Women and Children Affected by HIV in Uganda

Fourth-year medical student Jessica Kraker traveled to Uganda to work with the Alpha Childcare and Community Development Organization (ACCDO), which provides medical, educational and spiritual support to widows and children affected by HIV/AIDS. She divided her time there between the women's ward, pediatric ward, operating theater, and the maternity ward.

