In Memoriam: Dr. Leah Joan Dickstein

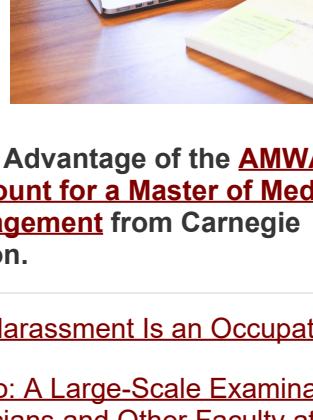

Share your memories of Dr. Dickstein.

"Of paramount importance, we as women physicians must first know ourselves honestly. We must recognize life's different stages and that goals may and should change with time. Don't make life choices that will result in life regrets. Being a wife, mother, and physician have all been extraordinary experiences. I would not have wanted to miss any."
- Dr. Leah Dickstein
